1. In mid-October 760 men and women left Peiping for the USSR to undergo a one year's training course. The Chinese Communist Government selected 500 of the students from various military and political institutions and from the North China University and 260 students from various government departments.*
2. The students are to receive training in military and political affairs, economics, forestry, and mining.
3. On 25 November Chinese Communist authorities in Peiping sent about 3,000 Chinese Communist Youth Corps members between the ages of 16 and 25 from North China to Vladivostok aboard the Soviet ship TONG HSING (東星). In early January these young people were receiving training in the Vladivostok area from Soviet instructors. The training course was to be completed by about June 1951.
